Among The Islands.

We were pleased to see the tanned faces of our young men on Monday, (who left a week previous on a cruise of the St. Lawrence) and to know that they had made a safe voyage—however, we felt no fear for them after we glanced over the following staff of qualified officers: D. Church, captain; Geo. Waggott, mate; Dorl. Collier, pilot; Johnny Thompson, engineer; D. P. Christie, Trenton's popular cook. The trip barring a few mishaps, is spoken of very highly by the boys. We think perhaps the boys are a little severe on their pilot when they criticize him strongly for running them on a rock close to T. I. Park, but the pilot thinks the boys would not kick so hard if the young ladies on the dock had kept still and not yelled "she's a good thing boys push her along." The engineer and the cook, however, came in for their share of the troubles, and the captain thought it was a little too much when the cook refused to have more than two meals a day, and the engineer forgot his waste in the cylinder and liked to make a cotton machine out of the engine.

Mate Waggott did exceedingly well after Dr. Sterling had bandaged up his poison ivy, and he had been convinced that the Two Brothers light house did not lie out in the middle of Lake Ontario. We know by the smiling faces of all the crew that they are again preparing their charts for another bon voyage, and we hope to again hear of them betaking themselves to their ocean voyager the "Nina."

Dear Doctor:

I have been unable to ascertain what part of Scotland Archibald Thomson lived in, before coming to North America in 1773, and it occurred to me that you had mentioned that you had seen an account, somewhere, in which Archibald had mentioned his trip to this continent.

We are thinking of going to Scotland in August, intending to browse through the various old cities and towns where the ancestors at one time lived, taking photos of head stones in churchyards, and looking up any documents which may be available.

Therefore, if you can put me in the picture regarding Archibald Thomson's home town, I would be indebted to you.

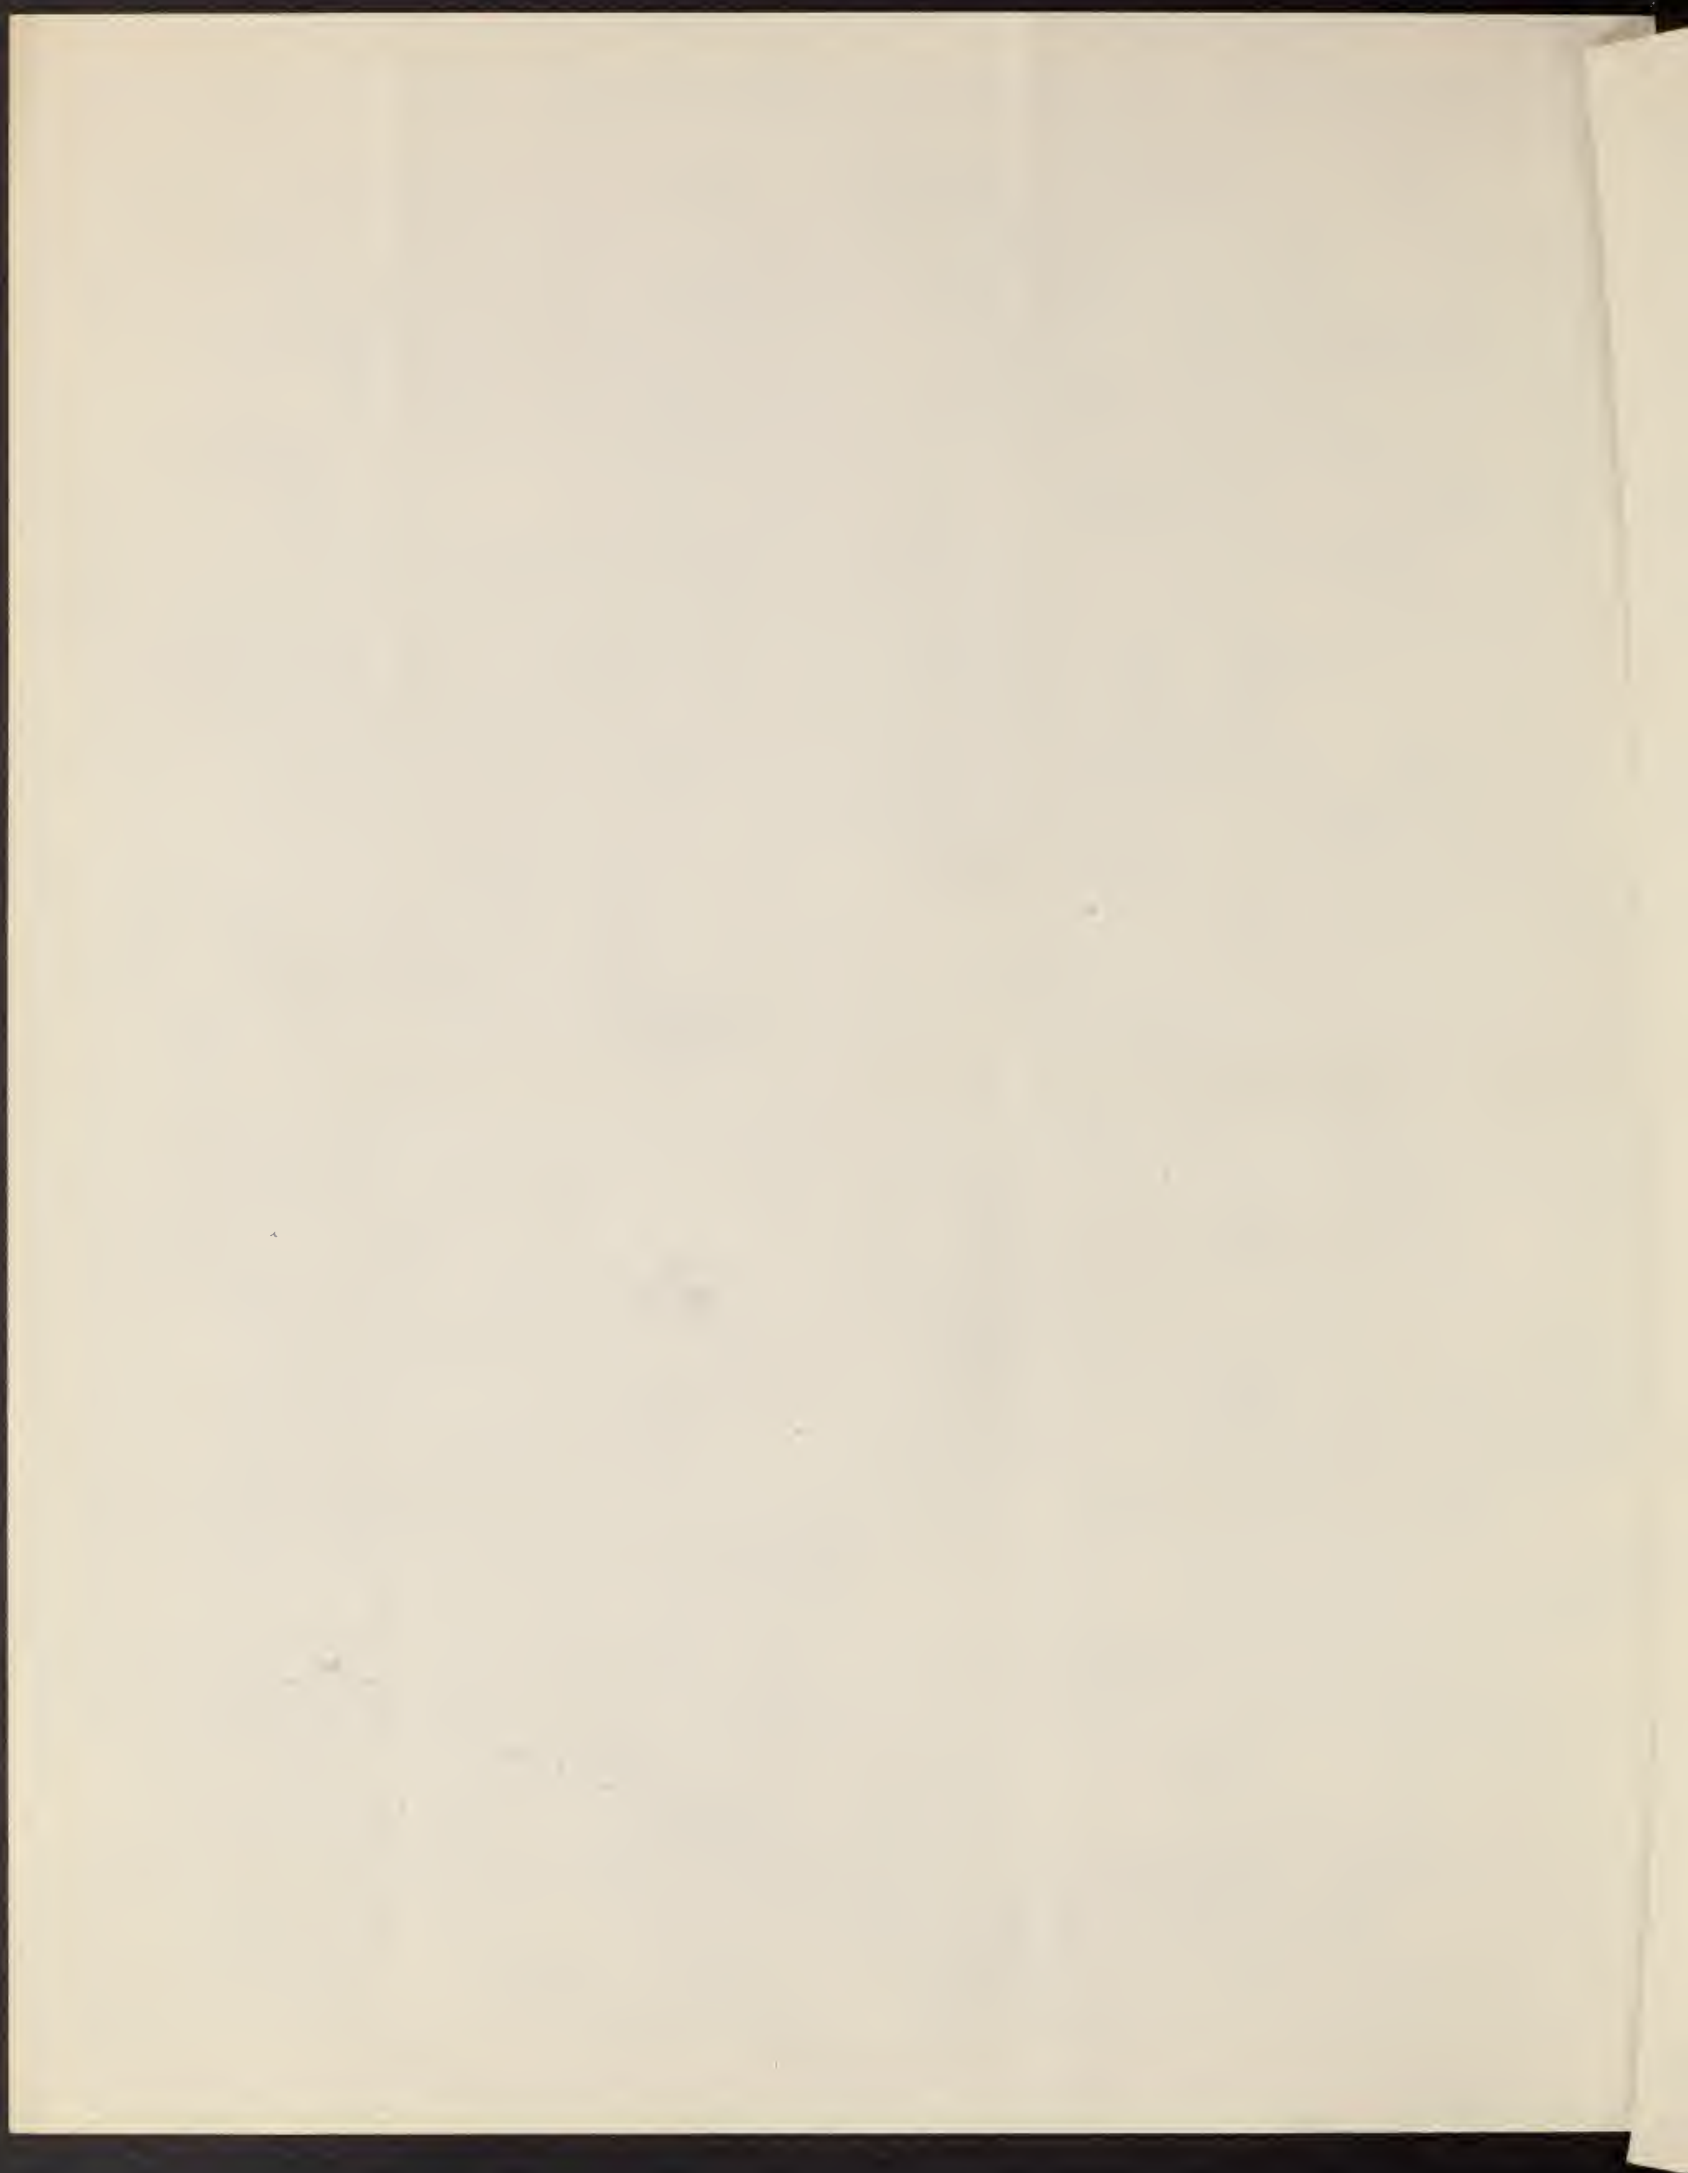

Yours sincerely

I am having great fun with the material you so kindly sent me on my French ancestors. My second

Thank you so much.

Dear Doctor:

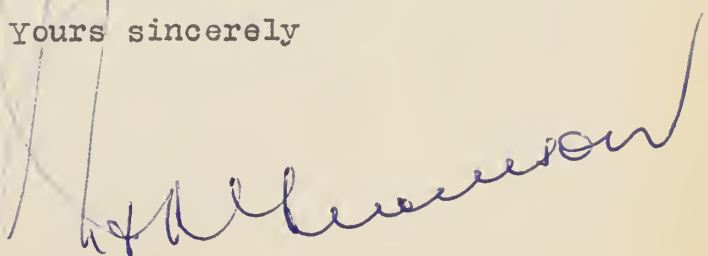

It will be a pleasure to look in at Traquair Castle in September and obtain for you photographs of the seventh and eighth Earls. Other photographs covering interesting features will also be obtained for you.

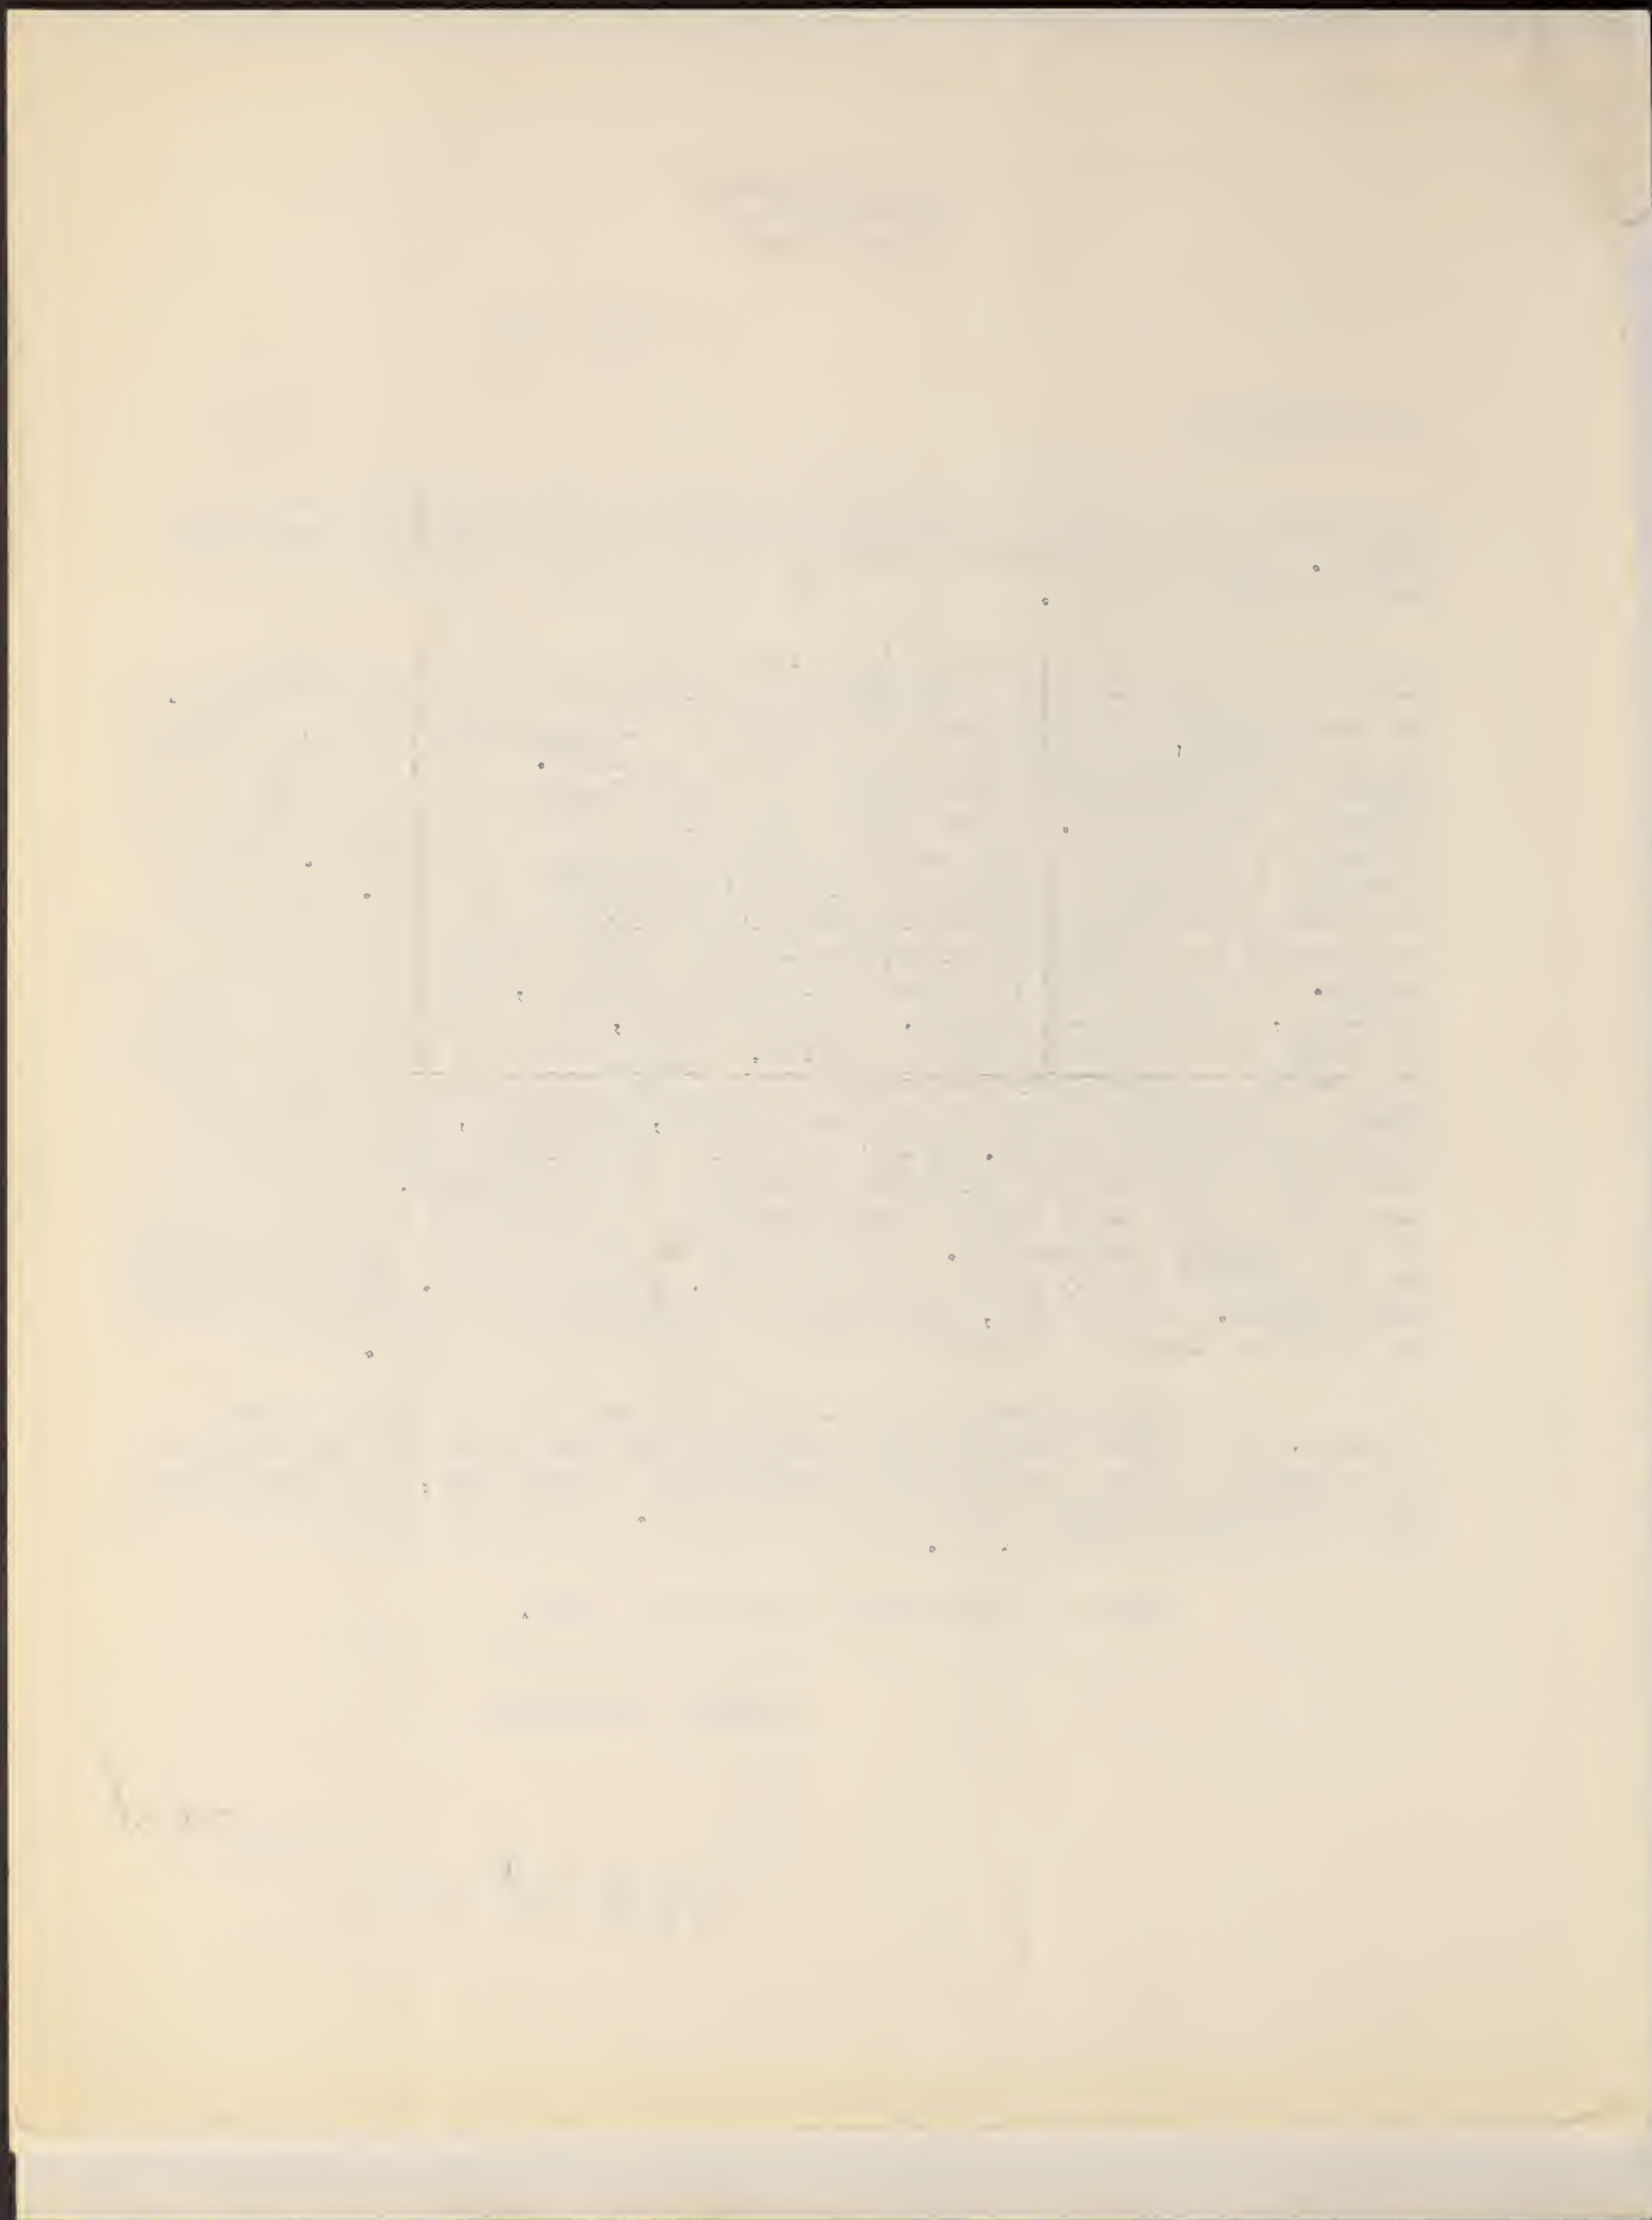

To give you an idea how easy it will be, we expect to take the train to Carlisle the day after we get off the airplane. At or near Brampton I propose to look into the Lawson family, ancestors of my Mother's family who landed here in 1829. Then we will drive north to Langholm and Westerkirk in Dumfriesshire for a look at the Thomson connection. I got the information on the Thomsons just the other day from a volume on the David Thomsons of Scarboro. David, a younger brother of Archibald arrived in Canada in 1796. From there we will go through Hawick to Jedburgh where we will inspect any documents or monuments relating to the Fair family, (my wife's maiden name). Our route then takes us through Melrose, Galashiels, Innerleithen, Peebles to Biggar, only 55 miles, which will give us plenty of time to stop at Traquair Castle. From Biggar we propose to drive to Irvine in Ayrshire to inquire into the Gilkisons and John Galt. Then to Edinburgh by way of Loch Lomond, Stirling, Bannockburn, Falkirk and Linlithgow. After a day or two in Edinburgh we take the train to Inverness to do some research on the Grants, after which the train will take us to Aberdeen where we hope to find some trace of the Geddes connection. That leaves us Blairgowrie and the Dewars which we will do by car from Aberdeen, via Balmoral. Then Edinburgh and London. So you see, there is no problem and no expense, because we will be taking photos for our own collection anyway.

I have been able to add quite a lot of data to my record, and think that I will consolidate the Scottish and English information with the Canadian stuff when I get back, and then have the thing published, or at least printed. If this happens, you will get a copy for your files.

Glad to hear from you at any time.

Yours sincerely

Re: Thompson and McDavitt Families.

William McDavitt, Thurlow Township, was the father of my grandmother, Sarah Elizabeth McDavitt Elliott. Therefore, William would be my great grandfather, and his wife's parents would be great-great grandparents of mine. Their name was Thompson.

According to the book, Rambling River, Robert Thompson owned part of lot 4, concession 5, Thurlow, in 1867. See page 264.

According to the 1878 Belden Atlas, William McDavitt owned part of lot 4, concession 5, Thurlow, in 1878. See pages 10-11.

It seems apparent that William McDavitt is the son-in-law of this Robert Thompson. In other words, the son-in-law bought the father-in-law's farm sometime between 1867 and 1878.

In Elmwood Cemetery, near Foxboro, Ontario, there are buried a Robert and Sarah Thompson. According to Percy Hodgen of Roslin, Ontario, this is the cemetery where the Thompson's are buried. Furthermore, he states that William McDavitt was buried in the same plot as his in-laws, but his name was never placed on the tombstone. His wife died later and was buried in the then new plot in Belleville Cemetery, now used by the Hodgen family. The records of Elmwood Cemetery for this earlier period no longer exist.

Lieut.-Col. H. C. Burleigh, M.D.,
Bath, Ontario.

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

Intermittently, for nearly twenty years, I have been researching the genealogy of my forebears on both sides. One of my great grandmothers, Sarah Thompson (born 1818 ?), married William McDavitt (born 1808, in Ireland). One of their children was Sarah Elizabeth McDavitt (born 1856; died 1912) who married Robert Elliott (born 1848; died 1915), my paternal grandfather.

It has been stated to me that the late Dr. Demorest of Foxboro, Ontario, prepared the genealogy of this particular Thompson family; and, on his death, Mrs. Demorest turned this material over to you. Hence this letter.

Are you able to give me the names (including the wife's maiden name) of the parents of Sarah Elizabeth McDavitt Elliott -- also, dates of birth, marriage and death (including day, month and year, if possible)?

Any assistance you are able to give will be very greatly appreciated. Although it is not, as yet, completely definitive, the attached sheet entitled "Re Thompson and McDavitt Families" may be useful.

Yours sincerely,

Earle W. Elliott.

Dear Col. Thomson:

I have received your very kind offer to visit Traquair House for us in September. It is far more than we had hoped--the opportunity of seeing this old house by means of photos taken by an expert, as I am sure you are.

Your kindness makes me anxious to assist you with your genealogical problems. So, I am enclosing a full list of the children of Archibald Thomson and Elizabeth Mackay. Unfortunately, I did not keep a duplicate copy of my letter of March 5, 1963. The note which I made at the time leads me to suspect that I may have sent you a list of the children at that time. If I did, you will now have a duplicate copy, for what it is worth.

I am also noting the death of Hugh C. Thomson, which I found in John C. Clark's diary. It was the only entry in the diary about him.

Please note also that Helen, one of the daughters was baptized in St. Paul's Church. To me this means that the family must have resided in Fredericksburgh ~~then~~ for a few years at least. Incidentally, the son, Alexander, was baptized at Niagara, likely by Rev. Mr. Addison.

You will also note that the Thomson family is listed in those settled in Fredericksburgh, and that Archibald was at Niagara. Prior to the actual settlement, each man was required to designate where he would settle, even though he might later change his mind. This, it appears, is what happened to this family. As will be seen, the family ultimately settled in Scaboro.

I am also enclosing several isolated items, all of which will reveal the whereabouts of Archibald Thomson over a period of years. I shall quote sources so you can investigate them yourself, if advisable.

Again, our sincere thanks with regard to Traquair. We hope that you have a pleasant and profitable visit to Scotland.

Yours sincerely,

September 20 1962

Dr H.C. Burleigh
U.E.Loyalist Association
Bay of Quinte Branch
Adolphustown, Ont

Dear Doctor:

I appreciate very much your friendly letter of the fifteenth in which you informed me that my application for membership in the society would probably go through.

I enclose herewith a rough draft of a family history I am putting together for the benefit of my grandchildren. This will give you just about all the knowledge I have concerning the Thomson connection, and, for that matter, the Ruttans, Gilkisons, Geddes's etc. If your records contain any further information about the doings of some of these ancestors which may not be included in my record, I would be glad if you would put me in the picture, so that my next draft will be more complete.

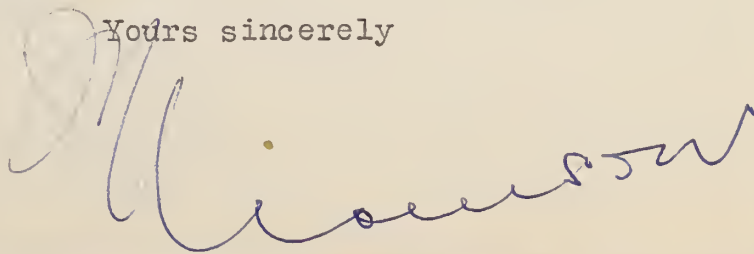

I am sure that the Thomsons of the Mohawk Valley are not connections of ours, but one never knows. My father told me once that some relatives of Archibald's came out from Scotland subsequent to 1763, and settled in Scarboro township, but I am doubtful if they were U.E. Loyalists. Many of their descendants I am told, still live there.

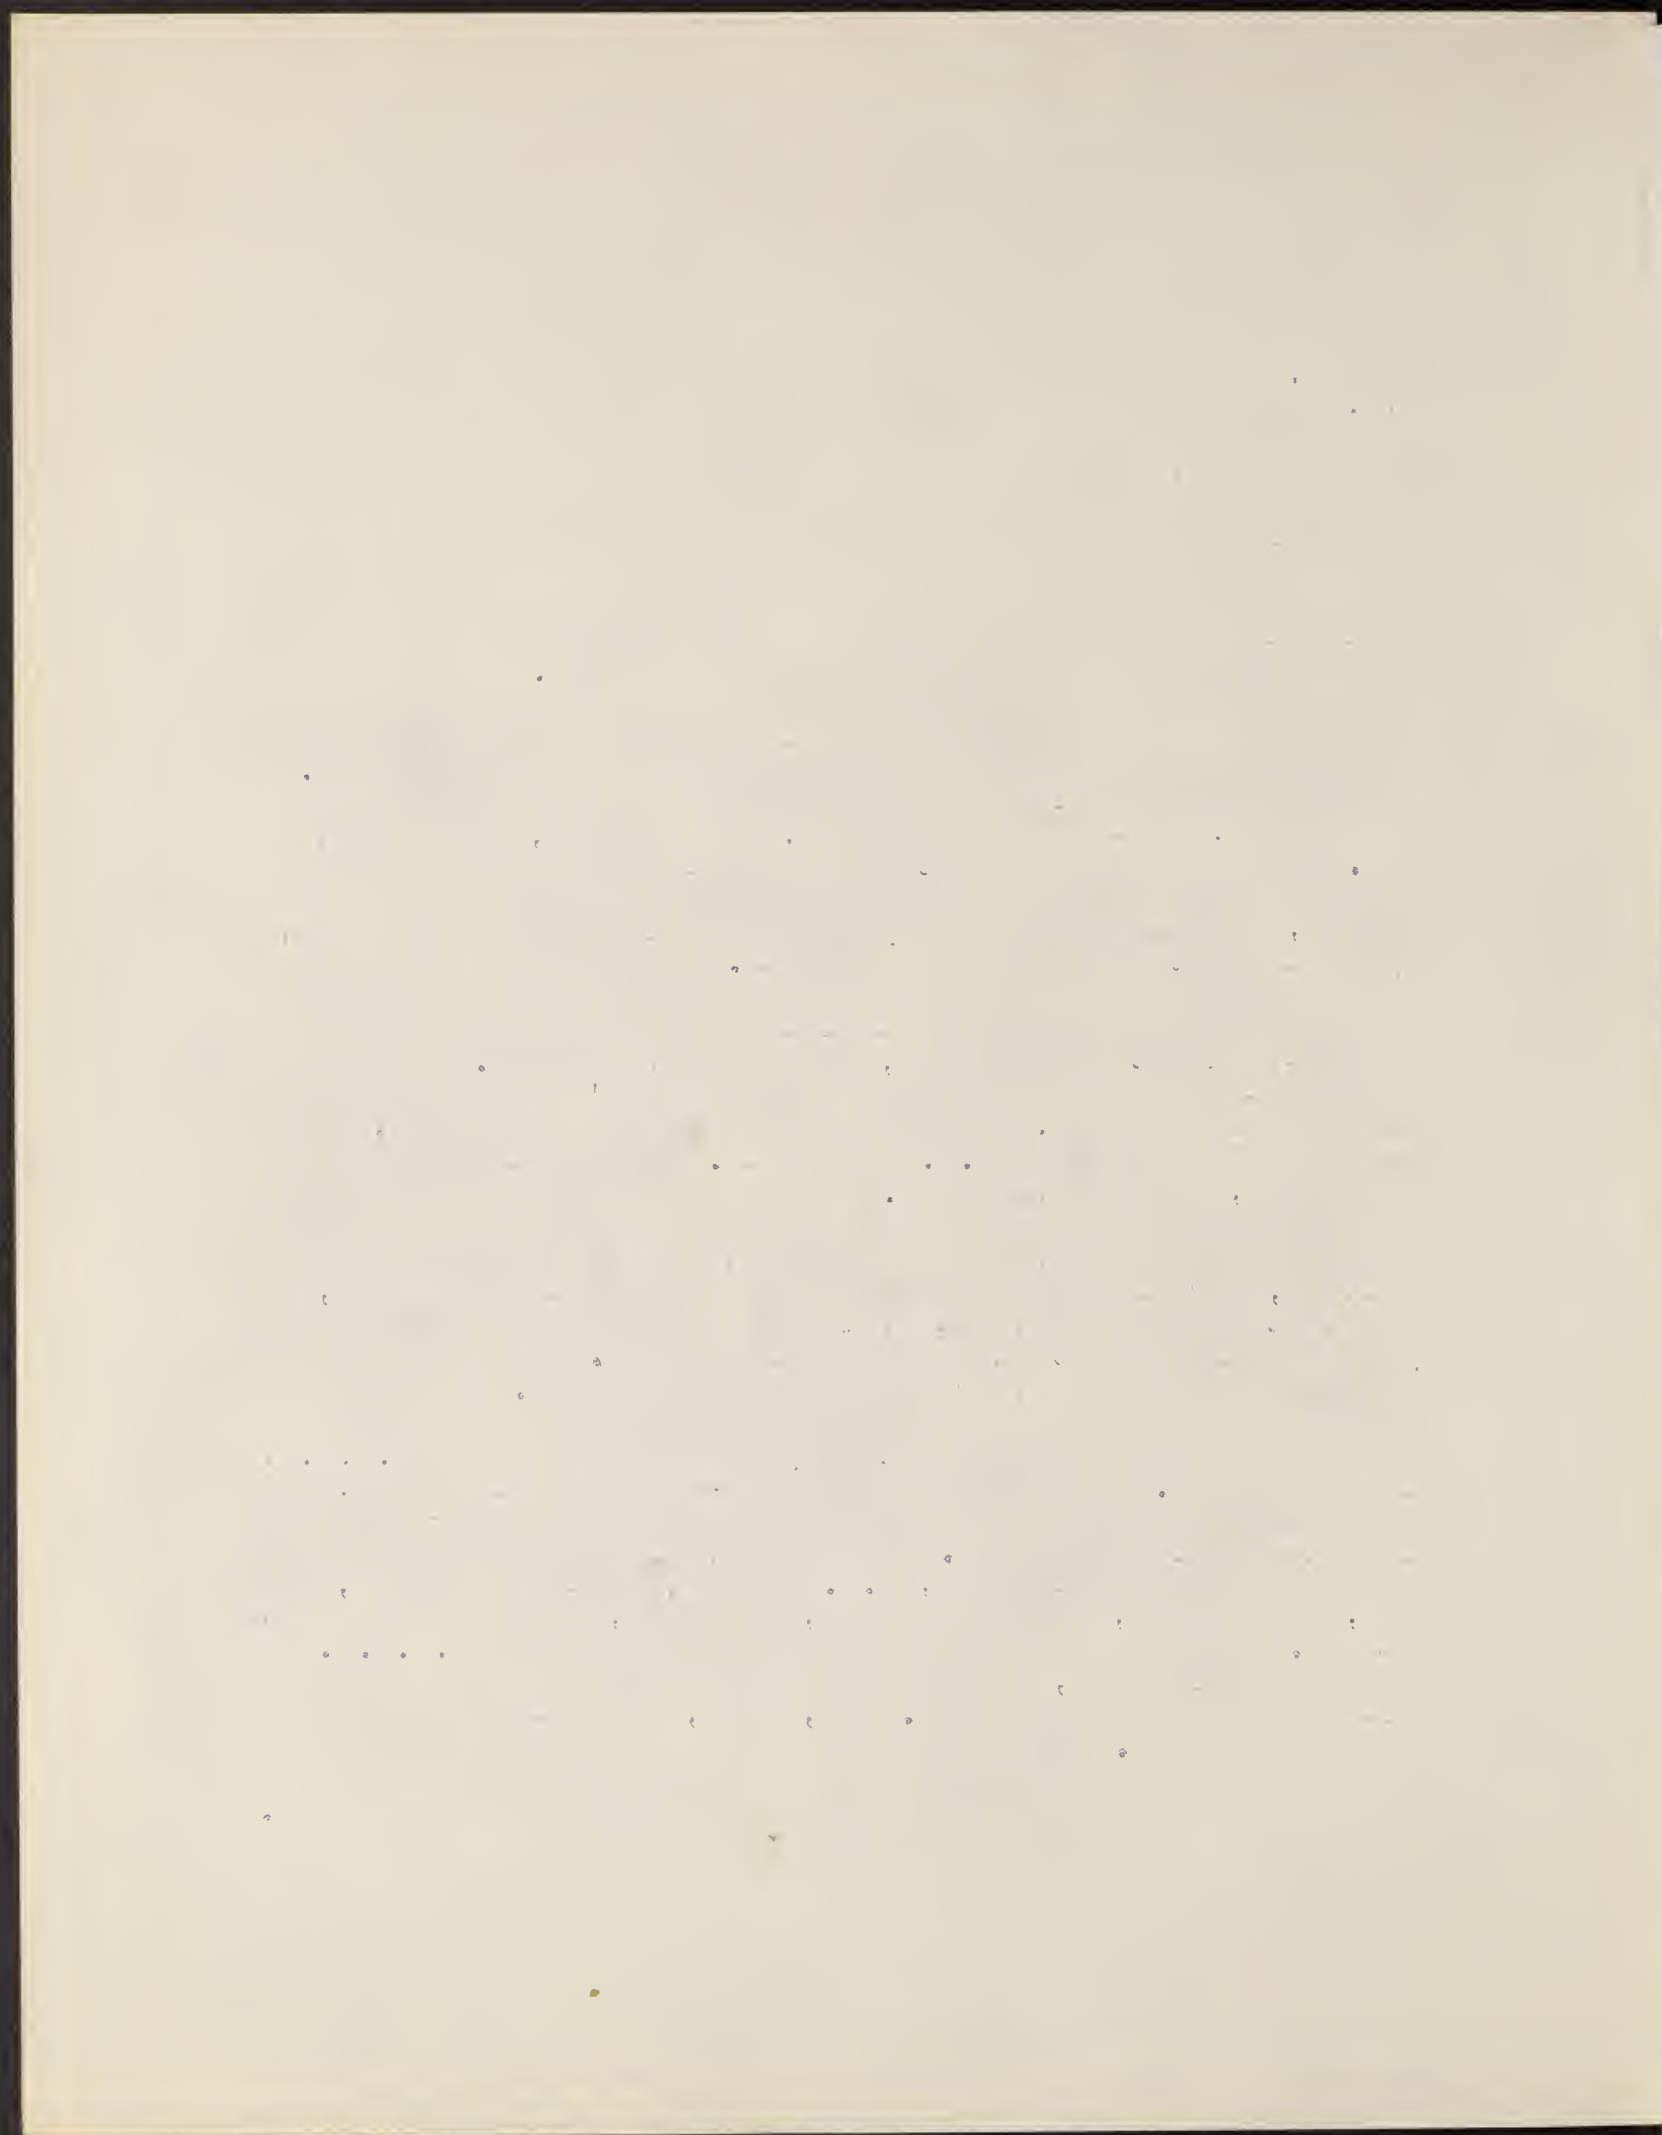

Having in mind that all my ancestors except the Ruttans, Barthes and Lawsons were either Scotch or Irish, it is a pity that I was not interested in the subject during the five years I was in Britain during World War II. My leaves could have been used to much better effect than they were.

I take it that you were not in the C.A.M.C. during the first war. During my year as pay-sergeant at Taplow, (1915) I had as associates a number of third and fourth year Queens and Toronto medical students. You may have run into some of them; fellows like Roy McGregor, F.W.Diamond, Beattie Burwell, Howard Box, Bill Milne, Harry Jennings, McKinnon, Ernie De Beaupre, and others. All these chaps were commissioned in the R.A.M.C. without having to graduate, and most of them came from Eastern Ontario and returned there to practice. Two, only, Harry Jennings and DeBeaupre came to Alberta.

Would be glad to hear from you at any time.

Yours sincerely

15 Sept., 1962.

Mr. J. H. R. Thomson, U. E.,
835 Rideau Road,
Calgary, Alta.

Dear Mr. Thomson:

As genealogist of the Bay of Quinte Branch, U. E. L. Association, I have just processed your application for membership, and am pleased to inform you that I have recommended your acceptance, which is more or less tantamount to approval. My congratulations, particularly on your well-prepared ancestry.

I am more than interested in your Loyalist antecedents, as I have been absorbed in the story of the Loyalists for more than thirty years. I have come across your ancestor (in name only), Archibald Thomson on several occasions, particularly with respect to his activities in Brant's Volunteers, the first settlement of Fredericksburgh Township and in the City of Kingston. The Rutlans, being close neighbors of my own first Loyalist ancestors, likewise are known to me.

As you may already know, there was an Irish family of Thomsons (Thompsons) in the Upper Mohawk Valley in colonial times. This family included John, whose wife was Elizabeth McGinnis, James, Andrew and Timothy, all of whom took important parts in the Revolutionary War. I have no proof that they were of your family, but have often suspected that they were. Do you have any information on these Thomsons? I ask because I have been collecting all information possible on our Loyalist ancestors. At present I have some 300 files on Loyalists who settled along the Bay of Quinte in the 18th century.

I am also interested in your Scottish ancestry. My wife, with descent from the Stewart Earls of Traquair, is also distantly related to the Grants of Glenmoriston, the Muntly Gordons, the Frasers, etc., etc. I have done a great deal of research in early Scottish history and find it most interesting. Perhaps it is my descent from the Galloways of New Jersey which makes me so interested in the Scottish story and the sound of the pipes. I note that you had a session in World War I, as well as II, as I myself have had. I can still hear the pipes skirling along the Boulogne Road on their way to the Bullring, and it makes me homesick.

Should you wish to favor my Thomson file with added information, it would be greatly appreciated.

Yours sincerely,

H. C. Durlough,
Branch Genealogist.

Dear Mr Young:

My brother Arthur sent me your letter to him dated August 8 1962, together with enclosures on the subject of membership in the U.E.L Association of Canada. He thought that I would be interested in joining it, and I am. Being retired, I have much more time for pursuits such as this, than he has.

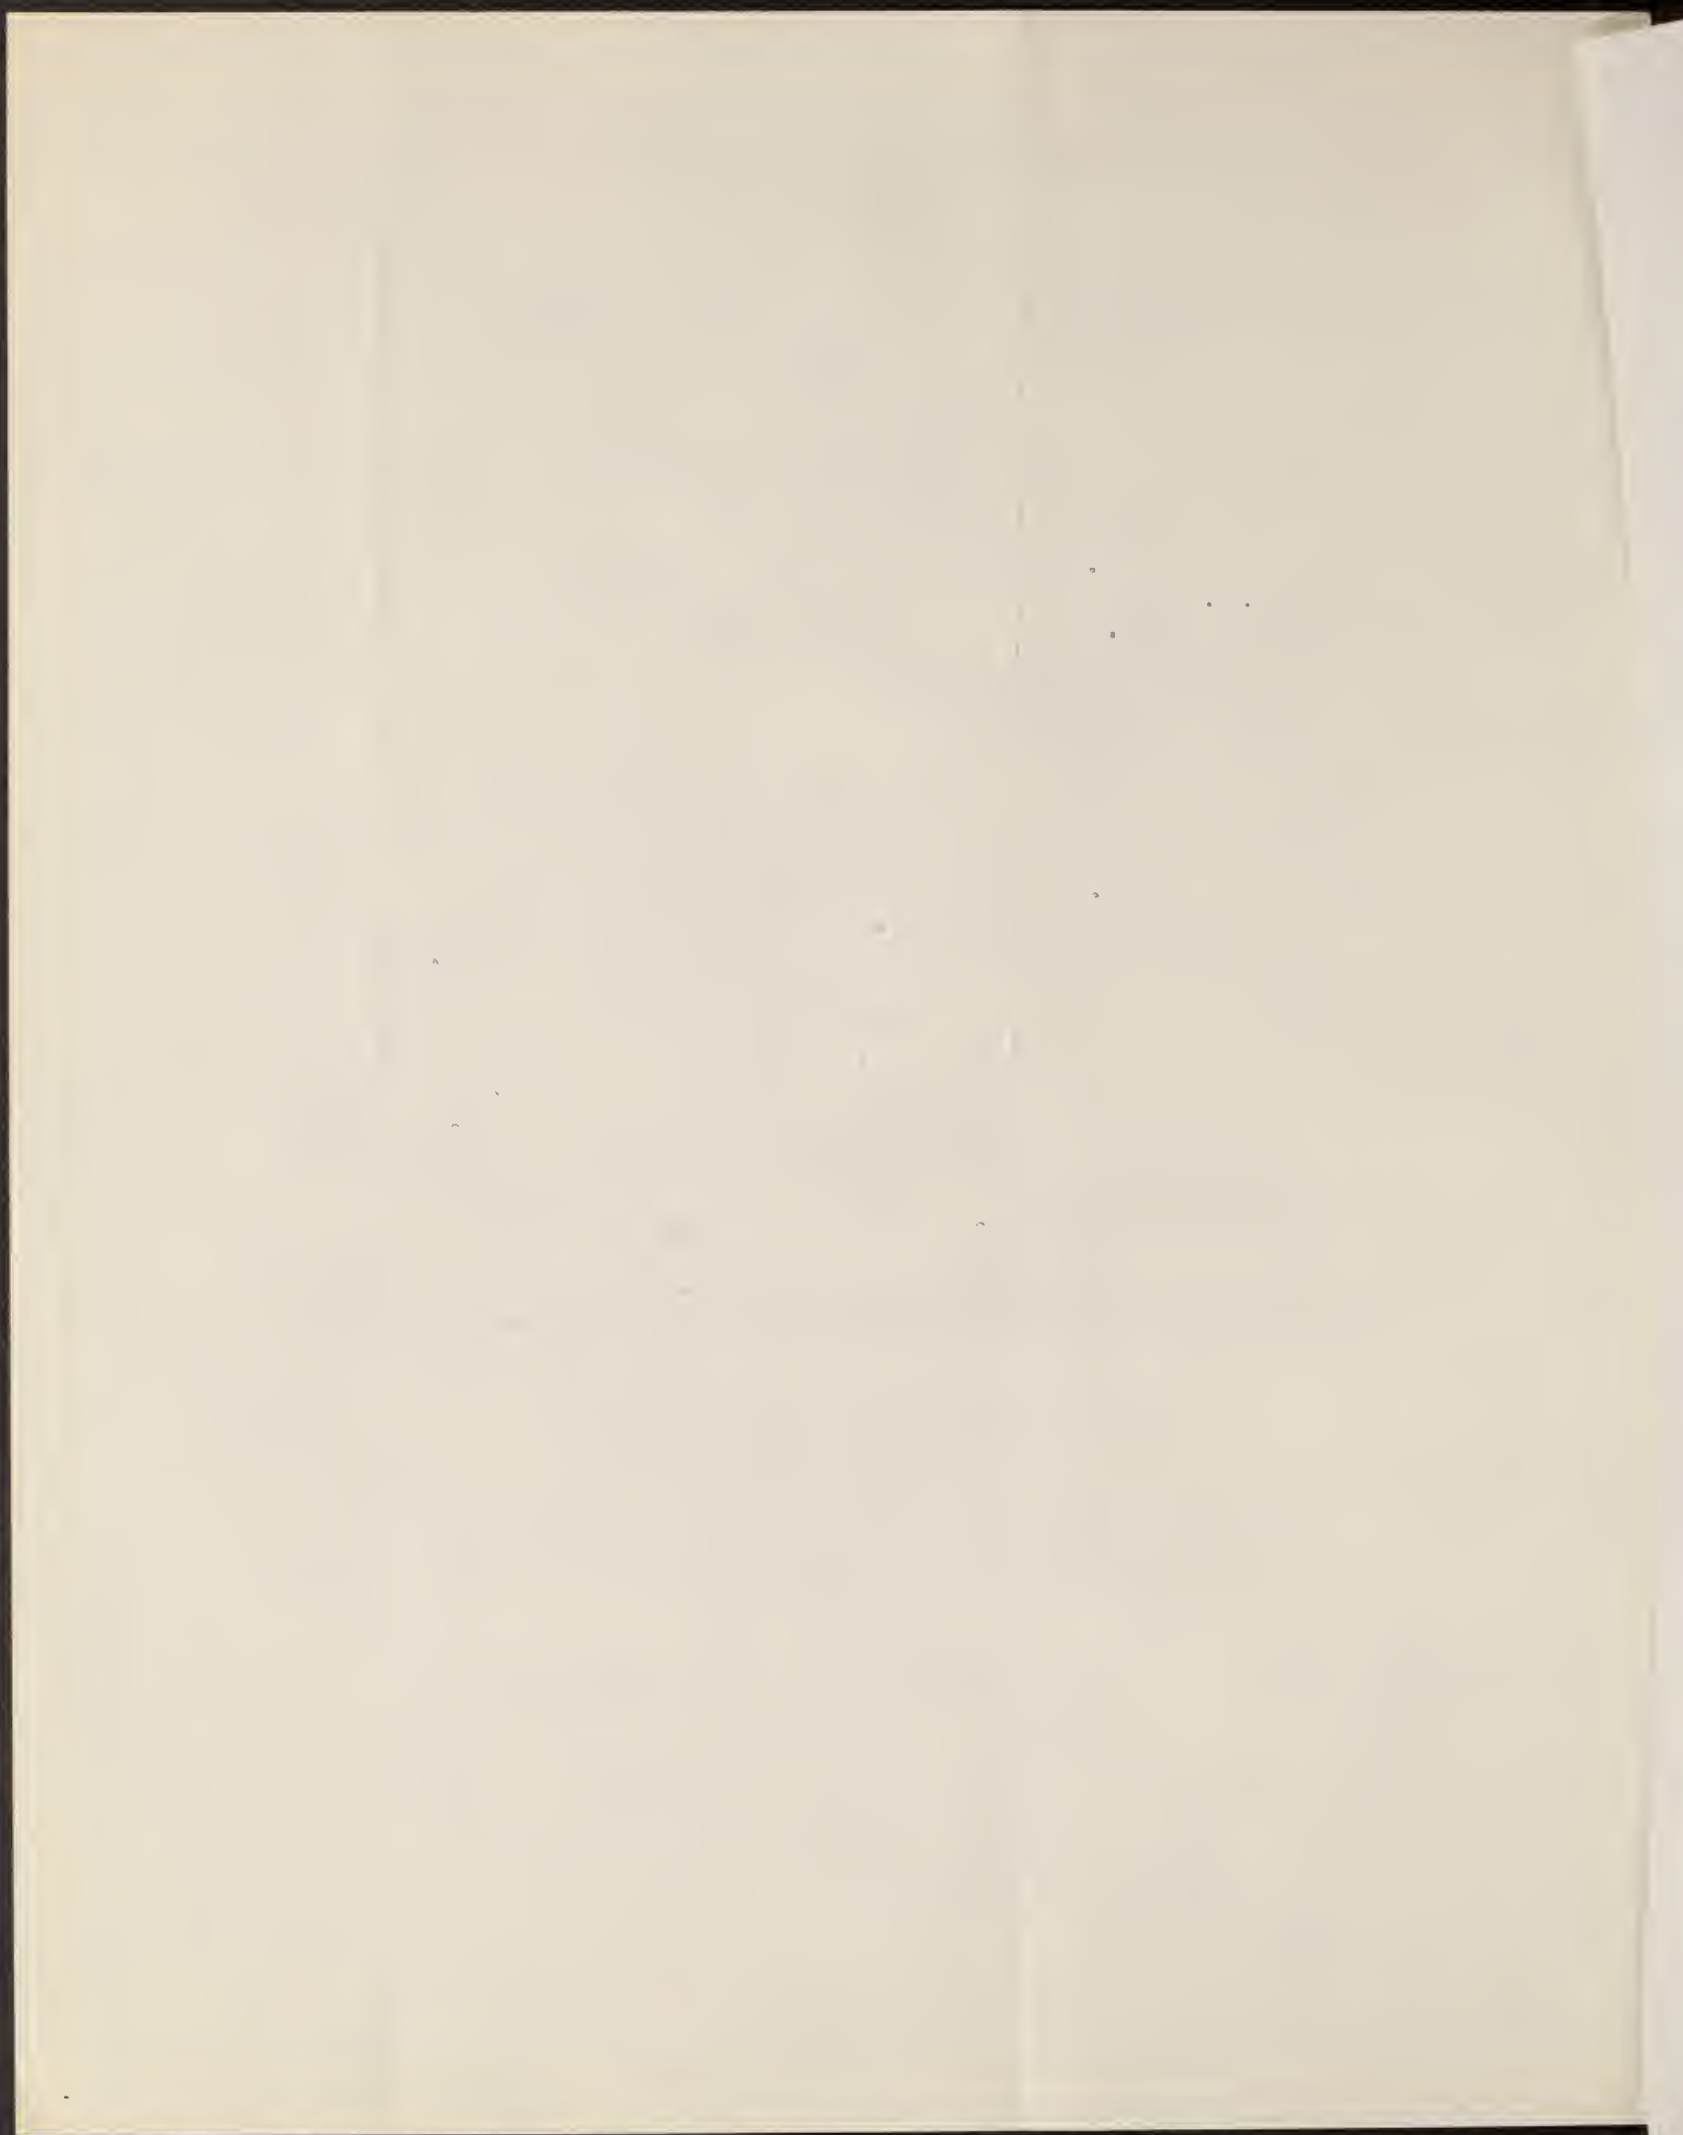

Although I have nobody to propose or second my application, I take it that if my brother was suitable for membership, I should be. Therefore I would ask you to do the necessary for me. The only fellow I ever knew in the Adolphustown district was George Clark who went to school with me in Trenton Ontario in 1912.

My cheque for $5.00 covering application fee and annual dues, is attached hereto.

Yours truly

Mr. J. H. R. Thomson,
835 Rideau Road,
Calgary, Alta.

Dear Mr. Thomson:

Your letter of 20th inst., together with your first draft of the story of your ancestry have arrived safely. My sincere thanks for this addition to my library of Loyalist ancestry.

On reviewing your pamphlet I discovered several familiar names which appear in our early history--Grant, Barthe, Gilkinson, Thomson, etc., etc. At the same time, it came to me that I could add to your knowledge, if you do not already have it. I refer to the records of your several French families to be found in Tanguay's Dictionary. I started to arrange it for you, beginning with the Barthes. Then, I kept adding related families, much to my regret, as it turned out to be a time-consuming labor. However, I am enclosing it, hoping that it broadens your horizon. You will note that I have dated the Barthe-Alavoine marriage; his seven children; corrected spelling of Campeau; and ancestry, in all lines, of Barthe-Campeau.

I have some notes regarding Thomson-Ruttan, but it will take some time to organize it. It gives an interesting light on the itinerary of Archibald from Scotland to Scarboro.

I was in the C. A. M. C. during the First War. I joined as a student in 1915, went overseas in Feb., 1916, as rear-rank private. I was in reinforcements for No. 5 Stationary (Queen's) Hospital, then in Egypt. On disembarking, we became attached to Moore Barracks Hosp., Folkestone, while we awaited the return of No. 5 from Egypt. In 1916, No. 5 became No. 7 Gen. Hosp., and was sent to France, to Le Treport to organize. In the meantime, the re-inforcements went to France 31 May (the day of the Battle of Jutland), and were temporarily posted for duty with other Gen. Hosps. I went to No. 2 Can. Stationary at Boulogne. In Sept., '16 we returned to No. 7 at Treport, and in Nov.-Dec. following removed to the Base at Etaples. Here I remained until the Spring of 1919, when we returned home. I had the distinction of being discharged in the same rank as was Adolph Hitler.

In the 2nd War, I entered the army at Barriefield in the rank of Lieut., R. C. A. M. C., in July '40. Captain in Sept., '40, while employed on Standing Medical Board. In Fall of '42 I was transferred to H. Q., M. D. 3, Kingston. Major in '43; Lt.-Col. in '44; O. C. No. 3 Coy. & Asst. D. M. O. in '44; Acting D. M. O. Dec., '45--Apr., '46, when I was retired. Subsequently, I served 3 years as O. C. Medical Section of NO. 5 Manning Depot, Kingston.

I recall a number of those names of medical students, particularly, Diamond, Box (from Renfrew), and McKinnon (also of Renfrew). McKinnon's son is my son-in-law. I have never been to Taplow, but I have heard so many nurses who spoke of it and their time there. A rear-rank in his teens does not do too much travelling. If I were there now, believe me, I would get about the country to visit all the places where my ancestors once lived.

I hope that you continue your most interesting work. Too bad that more do not do the same.

Sincerely,

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance and that it has not been completely solved. The author then presents a new method for solving the problem.
The method is based on the use of the variational principle and the method of undetermined coefficients. The author shows that the method is very simple and that it gives the exact solution of the problem.

The first settlement in the city of Boston was made by a group of Puritan ministers and laymen who came from England in 1630. They were led by John Winthrop, who gave them the name of the "City upon a Hill". The city grew rapidly and became one of the most important centers of commerce and industry in the New England colonies.
